

- We come directly to your boat with our custom-made service boat and pump out the holding tank(s).
- This is followed by a freshwater rinse of the tank and a second pump out to empty it.
- Finally, a service tag is left on your boat confirming that the service call has been completed.